

Association of Contingency Planners
Dedicated to the evolution of business continuity

The Association of Contingency Planners- Washington, DC Chapter

Proudly invites you to a lunchtime discussion for industry specialists and interested personnel:

Special Panel Session @ NASA HQ on:

Best Practices in Business Continuity Planning and Continuity Planning (BCP/COOP)

*This special panel session is FREE and includes a complimentary lunch! All are welcome.
RSVP Required (see below)*

Panel Presentations:

- Five Things You Can Do Today To Enhance BC Program Effectiveness. (Brian Kaye, CBCP, Vice President and National Practice Leader, Control Risks)
- The BIA: To Automate or Not... (Gaston Boisson, CBCP, Director, BDA Global)
- Need to Achieve Federal No-notice Continuity Capabilities - Ideas For Using the "Four Pillars" To Your Agency's Advantage (Roger Fritzel, Deputy Director Strategy, Policy, Interagency Defense Continuity and Crisis Mgmt (DCCM)
- Best Practices in Establishing a Functional Telework Strategy and the Direction of Current Federal Legislation on Telework (Chuck Wilsker, President and CEO of the Telework Coalition)
- Satisfying FCD 1 and 2 Guidelines While Still Developing a Solid and Actionable Plan for Federal Agencies (Brenda Brown-Paul, CBCP, Senior COOP Manager with Nova Datacom)

Where: NASA Headquarters, 300 E Street S.W. (between 3rd and 4th Streets, SW), Washington, DC

When: Thursday, June 10th, 2010

Time: 11:30- 2:30pm

Agenda:

11:30-12:00 Lunch

12:00- 12:10: Opening Remarks

12:10- 1:45: Presentations

1:45- 2:15: Q/A

RSVP REQUIRED: For security purposes to obtain entrance into NASA, it is REQUIRED that you RSVP with your full name and whether or not your citizenship status to invite@acpdc.org. Please keep in mind that going through security takes time and to arrive early! All Citizens welcome, simply we have to follow NASA protocol.

Visit www.acpdc.org for speaker biographies and more information about our local chapter. Visit: www.acp-international.org to learn more about the Association of Contingency Planners

Questions? Please contact Jessica Blond, President, ACP DC: President@acpdc.org